

NCEA level 2 subjects recognised for entry to the Lincoln University Diplomas in Agriculture and Horticulture

Please note: a maximum of 24 credits in any one recognised subject will be counted towards the required total of 40 credits across four subjects.

Subject	NQF Subfield/Domain
Accounting	Domain Accounting - Generic
Agriculture and Horticulture	Achievement Standards from Domain Agricultural and Horticultural Science Selected Unit Standards from other relevant Domains*
Biology	Domain Biology
Business Studies	Domain Business Studies
Chemistry	Domain Chemistry
Classical Studies	Domain Classical Studies
Earth and Space Science	Domain Earth and Space Science
Economics	Domain Economics
Education for Sustainability	Domain Environmental Sustainability
English	Subfield English
Geography	Domain Geography
History	Domain History
Mathematics	Subfield Mathematics Subfield Statistics and Probability
Media Studies	Domain Media Studies
Physical Education	Achievement Standards from Domain Physical Education (excluding 90436, 90438, 90742, 91330 and 91501)
Physics	Domain Physics
Religious Studies	Domain Understanding Religion
Social Studies	Domain Social Studies
Technology	Achievement Standards from Domains: Digital Technologies, Design and Visual Communication, Generic Technology, Processing Technologies, Construction and Mechanical Technologies
Te Reo Rangatira or Te Reo Māori	Subfield Reo Māori

*To be considered for assessment, standards must have academic merit and not be practical in nature. Please contact Student Administration for more information.