Bachelor of Environment and Society

Summary of regulations for students beginning this degree in 2018:

(Unless noted otherwise, each course is 15 credits)

- At least 360 credits (24 courses)
- All the compulsory courses
- No more than 165 credits (11 courses) at the 100-level
- At least 75 credits (5 courses) at the 300-level

Prerequisites

To enrol in courses at the 200 level or above, you may need to have completed specific courses at the 100 level. When planning your degree, make sure you are including these lower level courses so that you have the right preparation for the more advanced courses.

You can check the prerequisites for each course on our website: www.lincoln.ac.nz/study/courses.

Course Advice

Course selections must be approved by the Course Advisor, Lloyd Carpenter, and students are required to discuss their study plan with Lloyd before the start of the semester. Students should choose their electives from the bachelor's degree courses offered at Lincoln, and they must form a coherent course of study.
