The LUSA President spoke to the report.

The LUSA President acknowledged the mahi the Director Māori & Pasifika and Tumauki Takirua have done in the lead up to Te Huinga Tauira.

LUSA has had three resignations recently. The President outlined the circumstances of these resignations.

Noted that the cost of living is a very high priority for students. This has been publicised in media recently. It is affecting students' choice around location and the cadence of their study.

Council discussed current aged accommodation and whether offering this at an appropriate economic return for the benefit of students was worth exploring. Council encouraged management to further interrogate the economic price points in planning for enhanced student accommodation.

Other universities have seen a move to a lighter study workload so students can work part-time and study part-time to manage cost of living. Observed at Lincoln that in the taught post-graduate program a lot of students work alongside their study.
