

Your Future at Lincoln University

Quick Reference Guide to becoming a Lincoln student

LINCOLN
UNIVERSITY

TE WHARE WĀNAKA O AORAKI

Things grow when the conditions are right.

It's true for industry, agriculture and it's most certainly true for people. At Lincoln University, helping you grow is what we are all about.

And we encourage you to do it your way, with diverse learning that fits your ambitions in an environment that allows you to flourish.

We partner you with industry to prepare you for the real world and to plant the seeds of a rewarding future.

So when the time comes, you're ready to go out there and grow the future for yourself and others.

Welcome to Lincoln University.
A place to grow.

Lincoln and the Canterbury region

Welcome to Canterbury

Our campus is located in Lincoln, a thriving town on the Canterbury plains.

Lincoln is small and very friendly. It boasts local pubs, great cafés and eateries, shops and even its own farmers and craft market.

Twenty minutes away is Ōtautahi Christchurch, which is transforming itself into one of the world's most sustainable cities. Its rapidly evolving culture and energy makes it ideal for students.

And no more than a couple of hours from Ōtautahi Christchurch, Canterbury offers a huge range of exciting recreational options in areas of incredible natural beauty – you can bungy jump, hike, mountain bike, raft, surf, swim, play golf, shop, visit wineries and gardens, and so much more.

Choosing Lincoln University

At Lincoln, we've got a solid reputation for offering the finest, most industry-relevant learning programmes. And we'd like to make you a part of that.

As New Zealand's leading land-based university, our specialised subject areas are all about harnessing the value of the land to help make the world a better place.

We've got strong industry ties to ensure that your learning lines up with what businesses need. Loads of our students gain work experience while they study, picking up real skills for the real world. You can't put a price on that.

We're the smallest university in New Zealand, which means a more personal learning environment, extra face time with lecturers and a friendly, village atmosphere.

Fun facts about Aotearoa New Zealand

- About one-third of the country is made up of protected national parks
- Sign language and Te Reo Māori are official languages of Aotearoa New Zealand
- No matter where you are in New Zealand, you'll never be more than 120km from the sea, so it's the ideal place for surfing and other water sports

- 1 Skiing at a local skifield only an hour and a half's drive from Ōtautahi Christchurch.
- 2 New Brighton's seaside He Puna Taimoana hot pools.
- 3 Recreational biking on Banks Peninsula.

Why Lincoln University?

At Lincoln University, we offer much more than just lectures and study. There’s always something to get involved in and the vibe is super friendly. Here are just a few of the things available to you as a Lincoln student.

Join the club.

Looking for great ways to meet new people, broaden your horizons and have some fun? Join a club. The Lincoln University Students’ Association (LUSA) and Whare Hākinakina LU Gym oversee all of our clubs and organisations. We can fill you in on what’s out there or even help you set up your own club.

Help is here.

Every student needs a little help now and then. That’s why we have support services for every area of student life. And they’re there for you whenever you need them. Whether it’s budgeting advice, help with a physical or mental health problem or you just want someone friendly to talk to, we’re on your side.

LUSA. They’re for you.

The good people at the Lincoln University Students’ Association (LUSA) are all about making student life the best it can be. Independent from the university, they offer impartial advice and look after your student rights. LUSA is committed to the Treaty of Waitangi and they help represent our Māori students at Lincoln. They also organise awesome and affordable events throughout the year.

Follow us and keep up to date

Te Awhioraki.

Te Awhioraki is an association that represents all Māori students on-campus and is managed and run by Māori students themselves. Te Awhioraki provides social, cultural and academic support to students during their stay at Lincoln. It also organises social events, wānaka and workshops which enhance and promote a Māori identity within the university.

Stellar coffee.

Where there are university students, there are also great cafés. And in our case, they’re well worth a visit or two. If you’re after a coffee to get your brain going, head to our fantastic student space, Grounded (which includes an awesome espresso bar), our central café, Mrs O’s or Pātaki Kai in Waimarie.

Career and job support.

Need a bit of pointing in the right direction? There are plenty of people on campus to talk to about career and employment advice. If you want to discuss job possibilities or need to find a part-time gig while you study, we’re here and ready to help.

Great care for little ones.

Our philosophy of helping people to grow also extends to our fantastic childcare centre. We create an environment that promotes wonder and play as central to learning. Children of all cultures love it, which makes it much easier for their parents to concentrate on studying.

- 1

The Grounded student space is a great place to catch-up.
- 2

Students enjoying themselves at the end-of-year Garden Party.
- 3

The Lincoln Tramping and Climbing club, one of over 30 clubs and societies at Lincoln.

Lincoln at a glance

15th rated for small universities globally 	84% of graduates in paid employment 	43% of campus energy is renewable
12.5:1 student to staff ratio 	89% of students say the University meets or exceeds expectations 	Students from over 60 countries
In the top 25% of QS World University Rankings 2024 	Attracts urban & rural students 	3rd oldest University in New Zealand
2,412 hectares of farms 		17 research centres and collaborations

Our study programmes

Bachelor's degrees

We offer a range of specialist undergraduate degrees that will prepare you for a great career.

Bachelor of Agribusiness and Food Marketing

The Bachelor of Agribusiness and Food Marketing is the only specialised food marketing degree in the Southern Hemisphere. Built on our global reputation in agriculture and agribusiness, it will expand your potential for roles across the agrifood value chain.

Bachelor of Agriculture

The Bachelor of Agriculture will provide you with a detailed understanding of soil management, plant and animal production, and farming systems. Graduates can make a difference in jobs across all areas of agricultural production and related industries.

Bachelor of Agricultural Science

Agricultural production is critical to feeding the world's population. The Bachelor of Agricultural Science will teach you how to help farmers and primary producers meet the requirements of international markets, with an expectation for food to be traceable from paddock to plate.

Bachelor of Commerce

Our industry-relevant Bachelor of Commerce has a specific focus on value chains. Value chains connect the world, and so do our graduates.

Choose from one of eight majors:

Accounting and Finance

Learn how businesses design, develop and apply financial systems and models to nurture value with this industry recognised qualification.

Entrepreneurship and Innovation

Learn how to maximise your entrepreneurial spirit by cultivating practical knowledge and critical thinking skills through imagination and creativity. You'll be well-prepared to tackle some of the most significant issues and become ready to take on whatever the global digital economy has to offer.

Food and Resource Economics

Gain in-depth analytical skills and knowledge about how the food industry relates to New Zealand and international economies.

Global Business

Gather insights into the practice of international management and develop the decision making skills you need to add value to any business as soon as you have graduated.

Hotel and Tourism Management

Study for a qualification that will be recognised both in New Zealand and internationally. Be a part of the future of tourism and develop the managerial skills, knowledge and understanding to revitalise the tourism industry.

Individual

Create your own Bachelor of Commerce, building on the core compulsory courses and adding electives of your choice.

Marketing

Learn the fundamental principles of marketing to create, communicate, deliver, and exchange offerings that have value for customers, clients, partners, and society at large.

Supply Chain Management

Gain an in-depth understanding of the complexities of managing business relationships, conducting business between firms, creating value, and moving products and information around the world. This is an industry-leading major, and each year one of the world's largest logistics companies visits Lincoln to recruit our students.

Bachelor of Commerce (Agriculture)

The Bachelor of Commerce (Agriculture) is a specialised, industry-based degree that will prepare you for leadership roles in both the farming and agribusiness sectors.

Bachelor of Commerce (Agriculture and Professional Accounting)

This four-year degree includes components of our three-year Bachelor of Commerce (Agriculture) and industry recognised Bachelor of Commerce major in Accounting and Finance. Open the door to career opportunities in farm advisory and professional accounting roles in the rural sector.

Bachelor of Commerce (Horticulture)

Prepare to become a business leader in the horticultural and food industries and meet a strong demand for professionals who address to increasing global pressure for high-quality food.

The Bachelor of Commerce (Horticulture) will give you the skills and knowledge to pursue a career in an all-important management or advisory roles.

Bachelor of Commerce (Sustainability)

Develop an understanding of how commercial decisions and actions can be made in a sustainable manner, preserving and enhancing land-based resources and well-being.

This degree integrates people, planet and profit in a way which reflects stewardship of the planet, while returning a fair and equitable profit to individuals, organisations and the community. It gives a bicultural perspective to recognise both the history and future of sustainability in Aotearoa New Zealand.

Bachelor of Environmental Management

The Bachelor of Environmental Management will give you the skills to distinguish between environmental policy and planning principles, methods and tools and apply them in varying contexts, from the city streets to rural land.

Bachelor of Environmental Policy and Planning with Honours

The accredited Bachelor of Environmental Policy and Planning (Honours) provides the knowledge and tools to critically discuss topical and enduring global issues so that you can learn to better manage the environment in a range of contexts.

Bachelor of Land and Property Management

Our accredited Bachelor of Land and Property Management is the most comprehensive property-focused degree in Australasia. You can study an urban or rural specialisation, or both – or combine property studies with an additional area of focus such as accounting, finance, environmental management, or marketing. There is also the possibility of spending a semester or two at a university overseas.

Bachelor of Landscape Architecture

Build a firm foundation in all aspects of modern-day landscape architecture with the Bachelor of Landscape Architecture. Taught by the School of Landscape Architecture – the longest-established school of its kind in New Zealand and staffed by internationally-acclaimed academics, this four-year degree is accredited by the New Zealand Institute of Landscape Architects (NZILA), meaning graduates are eligible to become registered professionals.

The lecturers and staff are fantastic as they actually want to help you to succeed. They also make things fun and applicable to the real world.

Abby Shepherd
Bachelor of Commerce

Bachelor of Science

As our world changes, we need highly skilled individuals who can tackle the big issues. How do we feed the world while minimising environmental impact? How do we protect our environment from biological threats? How do we maintain good environmental quality? These are the pressing questions facing scientists of the future. As a Lincoln University Bachelor of Science graduate, you can help answer them.

Choose from one of seven majors:

Animal Science

Gain an in-depth knowledge of animal science and production, with a focus on animal welfare, health and biosecurity, in an overarching framework of sustainability principles in land, systems and community.

Brewing and Fermentation

Gain sought after skills from this science-based programme covering brewing beer and fermenting a wide range of products such as cheese, kombucha, cider, yogurt, kimchi, and kefir.

Our programmes continued

Conservation and Ecology

Gain the practical skills, experience, and industry connections you will need to contribute to ecological and conservation activities of government and private agencies in New Zealand and beyond.

Environmental Science

Focus on soil, water and biology in a connected landscape context to understand how land use affects the environment and the best practices for mitigating these effects.

Food Innovation

Use cutting-edge technologies to create innovative new food products with high nutritional value and low environmental impact.

Plant and Horticultural Sciences

Develop critical knowledge in applied plant production, integrated pest management and problem solving and prepare to make a real difference in technical, advocacy or management roles.

Individual

Create your own science major in an area such as biochemistry, genetics, animal science or plant science.

Bachelor of Sport and Recreation Management

The Bachelor of Sport and Recreation Management will grow your knowledge and expertise, and expand your abilities across strategic management, marketing, event planning and a range of different recreation approaches and disciplines. It recognises the need for graduates to possess applied skills in sport and recreation management, together with skills in critical thinking and demonstrated academic competency.

Bachelor of Sustainable Tourism

Prepare to help grow a bold new future for tourism, with a focus on the wider context of sustainability in a changing world.

Bachelor of Viticulture and Oenology

Our Bachelor of Viticulture and Oenology degree will prepare you for fulfilling a career in the wine sector. Gain an understanding of viticulture and wine science, pest and disease management, biometrics and wine chemistry and open up opportunities for travel and further learning.

Additional majors

Studying for a Bachelor's degree with us? If you like, you can choose an additional major that will add depth to your qualification.

The additional majors (shown below) can be included in most bachelor's degree programmes.

- Accounting
- Economics
- Environmental Management
- Event Management
- Facilities Management
- Finance
- Global Business
- Marketing
- Parks and Outdoor Recreation
- Supply Chain Management
- Tourism Management
- Water Management

Practical work

Many of our programmes include a practical work component with the following benefits:

- You can apply the knowledge you learn in class to the real world and gain valuable experience that could give you a competitive advantage when applying for jobs
- You have the opportunity to network and make important industry contacts
- You develop great working habits for the industry you will enter – skills in observation, information-gathering and report writing

For more information, please contact the Practical Work coordinator at practicalwork@lincoln.ac.nz or +64 3 423 0061.

Undergraduate diplomas

Diploma in Agriculture (Level 5)

The Diploma in Agriculture is designed to enhance your agricultural and farm management knowledge in preparation for working in a professional environment. The programme covers farm management, associated husbandries and the physical and financial aspects of business planning.

Diploma in Applied Science (Level 5)

The Diploma in Applied Science will provide you with basic competency in a range of areas of science. It's an appropriate foundation for further training in any branch of the natural sciences.

Diploma in Commerce (Level 5)

The Diploma in Commerce allows you to complete courses from the Bachelor of Commerce programme and choose electives from any of the other bachelor's degrees. Study options include areas such as accounting, business management, computing, e-commerce, economics, finance, international business, marketing, property studies and supply chain management.

Diploma in Horticulture (Level 5)

The Diploma in Horticulture will introduce you to a broad range of topics associated with horticultural technology, production and management. The diploma covers computing, propagation, horticultural management system, soils, plants studies and engineering.

Diploma in Horticultural Business (Level 5)

Horticulture is a successful and profitable sector in New Zealand's primary industry. Success in this sector requires practical knowledge of production as well as business skills. Lincoln University's online Diploma in Horticultural Business is designed for individuals in the horticultural industry who wish to continue in their employment whilst studying.

Diploma in Farm Management (Level 6)

The Diploma in Farm Management leads on from the Diploma in Agriculture and is perfect if you're seeking a management career. You'll study all aspects of agribusiness management, including land purchase and ownership, financial and taxation management, investment analysis, agricultural law, labour management and law, and machinery ownership.

Diploma in Horticultural Management (Level 6)

The Diploma in Horticultural Management will prepare you for management roles in modern horticultural enterprises. The emphasis on business management, combined with horticulture and production courses, makes this diploma highly relevant and immediately applicable to the workplace.

Diploma in Natural Resources (Level 5)

The Diploma in Natural Resources allows you to complete courses from the Bachelor of Environmental Management, Bachelor of Environmental Policy and Planning, Bachelor of Landscape Architecture, Bachelor of Sport and Recreation Management and Bachelor of Sustainable Tourism. This flexible programme will give you a solid grounding in the field of natural resources and is an ideal introduction to further study.

STAR Courses

Grow your opportunities with free online study at Lincoln University through the STAR Programme, learning about the global food system and land-based issues which affect us all. For more information visit <https://www.lincoln.ac.nz/star-programme/>

Postgraduate study

We offer a wide range of postgraduate study options, including:

- Graduate Certificates and Diplomas
- Postgraduate Certificates and Diplomas
- Honour's degrees
- Master's degrees
- PhDs

See our Postgraduate Prospectus or www.lincoln.ac.nz/postgrad for more details, or email us at grow@lincoln.ac.nz.

Pathway studies

Our pathway programmes are designed to accelerate you into degree-level study. A range of pathways are available, depending on where you are starting and what your needs are.

Pathway Certificate (Foundation)

The Pathway Certificate will help you gain a grounding in academic studies and set you on your way to life at Lincoln University.

First-Year Pathway Diploma

The First-Year Pathway Diploma is designed to provide a firm academic grounding while allowing you to work towards your future degree. Once completed, you can transfer 120 credits and jump into the bachelor degree of your choice.

Accommodation

Living on campus is a great way to kick off your university experience and make loads of new friends. The halls offer a programme of social, sporting, educational and cultural activities.

Our on-campus accommodation is home to around 600 students. We have seven catered halls and two sets of fully-catered units, all within five minutes' walk of each other and the campus services.

The self-catered units generally house mature students who are undertaking postgraduate studies.

Check the website for up-to-date information on our current fees and accommodation options:

→ Find out more:
www.lincoln.ac.nz/accommodation

Māori and Pasifika students

Lincoln is the first university to promote and commit to the consistent use of the Kāi Tahu dialect, as well as celebrate whānau, hapū and iwi mahika kai practices, research and innovation.

Fees and scholarships

Our wide range of scholarships allow you to study and grow at Aotearoa New Zealand's specialist land-based university, while covering all or some of your tuition fees and/or living costs. There are hundreds of scholarships available, which can help cover your costs.

Sports Scholarships? Game on

Every year, we offer a select few students the opportunity to gain a world-class academic qualification while developing their sporting prowess to a professional level. As a Lincoln sports scholar, you'll be part of our specialist athlete education programme. Plus a full range of support services will be available to you under our complete athlete management system. The value of the Sports Scholarship is $6,000 for one academic year.

Future leader? Follow us

Leaders aren't always born. In fact, they usually develop. Each year, students who act as leaders in their school or community are offered the opportunity to develop their leadership skills while studying with us. You'll be part of our comprehensive extension and development programme. The value of the Future Leader Scholarship is $6,000 for one academic year.

Māori and Pasifika Scholarships

Lincoln has a range of scholarships for Māori and Pasifika students, including Tihi Kahuraki and Pasifika Excellence scholarships, to support them in achieving their aspirations for their whenua, whānau, hapū and iwi.

In addition to Māori and Pasifika accommodation scholarships, Lincoln has scholarships to assist Māori and Pasifika students passionate about agriculture, science, tourism, Mātauraka Māori including mahika kai, and to support students on pathways from other tertiary providers.

These complement the Sir Turi Carroll Scholarships for Māori student leaders which were initiated in 2013.

Vice-Chancellor's Scholarship for Excellence

Students of high academic calibre can also apply for the Vice-Chancellor's Scholarship for Excellence which offers assistance with tuition fees and living expenses during the duration of their degree.

And more (a lot more)

There are a small number of scholarships available for international students. In most cases, Australian citizens are deemed New Zealand residents for scholarship.

Fees

When you study with us, you need to pay for things like your tuition fees, field trips, as well as covering administration and student services fees.

→ Find out more:
<https://www.lincoln.ac.nz/study/>

Māori Students

Nau mai, tauti mai ki Te Whare Wānaka o Aoraki.

Lincoln University is a great place for Māori students to gain an excellent qualification in a fun, friendly and supportive environment.

More than that, we're committed to helping to develop the next generation of Māori leaders by offering industry-relevant, career-orientated programmes ranging from diplomas all the way to undergraduate and postgraduate degrees.

We have always been about harnessing the power of the land, and we understand how Māori land and primary sector assets are key economic resources for whānau, hapū, iwi and Māori communities.

Lincoln University has a comprehensive Māori Plan that aims to enhance engagement with Māori communities, support the aspirations of students and staff, foster a culture of leadership among students and staff, develop a bicultural campus, contribute to the achievement of Māori research and learning outcomes, and support the Māori economy.

Māori have a growing multi-billion dollar economy and need a diverse, specialised workforce to manage their significant assets for future generations. Lincoln is able to support and grow those people.

We offer a values-based programme of manaaki (support) for Māori students. The programme is called Manaaki Tauira and offers academic support, internships and practical work opportunities.

Te Awhioraki

Te Awhioraki is an association that represents all Māori students on-campus and is managed and run by Māori students themselves. Te Awhioraki provides social, cultural and academic support to students during their stay at Lincoln. It also organises social events, wānaka and workshops which enhance and promote a Māori identity within the university.

Te Awhioraki works alongside the Lincoln University Students' Association (LUSA) by advocating for students and providing them with an independent voice. Te Awhioraki has a seat on the University Council Committee responsible for Māori development (Ahumairaki) and LUSA Executive thereby providing a strong voice for Māori student issues.

Te Awhioraki is also a member of Te Mana Akonga (National Māori Students' Association).

Pasifika Students

Kia orana, talofa lava, malo e lelei, nisa bula vinaka, fakaalofa lahi atu, taloha ni, fakatalofa atu, halo oloketa.

Lincoln University has a longstanding association with the Pacific region and its communities which is supported by the Lincoln University Pacific Island Association on campus and external stakeholders as part of our Motu Working Group. We aim to contribute to the educational and economic aspirations of Pacific people both within New Zealand and in the wider Pacific region.

Pasifika students are able to engage in cultural, sporting and social activities on campus supported by the Pasifika Support Coordinator, Te Manutaki and our Pacific Islands Student Association (LUPISA).

Te Manutaki

The Te Manutaki team is dedicated to supporting Māori and Pasifika students at Lincoln University. We offer a variety of services, including assistance with study, scholarships, wellbeing, and cultural support. We also help connect you with course coordinators, kaimahi at Lincoln, and the wider community. Additionally, we provide a safe space for open kōrero (conversation) about anything on your mind.

→ Find out more:
www.lincoln.ac.nz

Kia ora, international students

Lincoln welcomes students from all over the world. We want your transition to New Zealand to be a life-changing experience in the best possible way, so our international advisor is here to help anytime.

Code of Practice

Lincoln University has agreed to observe and be bound by the Education (Pastoral Care of International Students) Code of Practice 2016. Copies of the code are available from the NZQA website: <https://www.nzqa.govt.nz>

Immigration and your student visa

Full details of immigration requirements, advice on rights to employment in New Zealand while studying and reporting requirements are available from Immigration New Zealand and can be viewed on their website: <https://www.immigration.govt.nz>

Eligibility for health services

Most international students are not entitled to publicly funded health services while in New Zealand. If you receive medical treatment during your visit, you may be liable for the full cost of that treatment. Full details on entitlements to publicly funded health services are available through the Ministry of Health and can be viewed on their website: <https://www.moh.govt.nz>

Accident insurance

The Accident Compensation Corporation provides accident insurance for all New Zealand citizens, residents and temporary visitors but you may still be liable for all other medical and related costs. Further information can be viewed on the ACC website: <https://www.acc.co.nz>

Medical and travel insurance

International students (including group students) must have appropriate and current medical and travel insurance while in New Zealand.

All New Zealand universities, including Lincoln University, endorse the insurance plan known as Studentsafe University. You can read more about the policy, premiums and contact details for claims: <https://www.lincoln.ac.nz/insurance>

Lincoln's global network

Once you successfully complete your studies at Lincoln University, you become what is known as alumni of the university, meaning a former student.

You'll be part of a global community of alumni, able to connect with each other and friends of Lincoln University.

All students who complete a course of study are automatically members of the Lincoln University Alumni Association and membership is free.

Find out more at <https://www.alumnilinc.lincoln.ac.nz>

We're here to help

Lincoln University provides our international students with a range of services.

Our International Office helps with:

- General inquiries, programme information and advice
- Making an application
- Student support

International Student Advisors help with:

- Pastoral care and student support

Our Student Administration Team help with:

- General enquiries
- Admission
- Enrolment support
- Student Visa applications
- Compulsory insurance cover

Support services

Everybody at Lincoln University is committed to taking good care of you and wants you to have a positive student experience. Our support services are here to help you succeed.

Inclusive Education

If you have an injury, disability or illness, our on-campus Inclusive Education team is available to support you. They can help with:

- Providing a reader or writer to assist you during exams
- Arranging extra time for you to finish your assessments
- Offering general support during tests
- Providing special equipment that you might need during your studies

Mobility parking is available on campus and we offer accommodation options that are suitable for students with a disability or injury.

All your health information will be kept confidential.

Student Health

The staff at our on-campus Student Health and Support centre can help you in a variety of ways.

An experienced team of doctors and nurses work with other members of the team to support your health and well-being.

A highly-qualified clinical psychologist and counsellor are also available to guide you through any issues that may arise throughout the year. These could include coping with life on campus, adjusting to living in a new country, or balancing home, work or study.

If you have an illness, injury or disability that could affect your learning or formal assessments, our Inclusive Education staff can provide you with support strategies.

We recommend that you choose to enrol with Student Health and Support, as the centre belongs to a PHO (Partnership Health Canterbury), making healthcare much less expensive for you.

Learning, Teaching and Library (LTL)

The Learning, Teaching and Library team can help you to get the best out of your studies with learning support and access to an extensive collection of online and print resources.

They also provide a quiet place for you to study, either individually or as part of a group in a designated study space.

The team can equip you with a range of study techniques, including helping you to strengthen your writing, find resources, manage your research, enhance your learning and develop your career.

Additionally, they can assist with referencing and data.

You can find the Learning, Teaching and Library team on the ground floor of the iconic Ivey Hall building at the heart of campus.

Chaplaincy

Our team of campus chaplains provide emotional and spiritual support to all Lincoln students, regardless of their religious beliefs.

The chaplaincy team are available to offer a listening ear and a safe place to talk over personal, work or study concerns.

They can support you during times of crisis, stress and anxiety, as a result of grief, homesickness, loneliness, family and relationship concerns, employment issues and other challenging situations.

They can also facilitate dialogue between faith and academic disciplines, act as advocates and help with non-medical aegrotats.

The Chaplains operate a food bank service for students who need assistance.

The team organises a range of spiritual, social and cultural activities throughout the year, including English conversation classes, prayer and support, worship services and social outings.

Wellbeing

The wellbeing of the entire Lincoln whānau is one of our top priorities and there are plenty of support services available on campus.

Our dedicated on-campus wellbeing team work hard to deliver a broad range of initiatives aimed at keeping you happy and well during your time at Lincoln.

If you ever run into any mental health issues or emotional difficulties while you're with us, you can always talk to someone from our wellbeing team.

Student Health also offers counselling and LUSA has an advocacy service that can support you through any difficult issues.

We're always working on ways to enhance our wellbeing programmes so you can rest assured that you'll be well taken care of at Lincoln.

Career and job support

Need a bit of pointing in the right direction? Talk to us for career and employment advice. From career possibilities to finding a part-time job while you study or for employers wanting to recruit students and graduates, we're here and ready to help.

To find out more about possible careers visit: <https://www.lincoln.ac.nz/student-support/finding-your-career>

Student Exchange

Our Student Exchange programme allows Lincoln students to complete part of their study offshore. Broaden your horizons and study overseas for a semester or a year.

We are great believers in experience, so that's why many of our courses have field studies attached to them. Industries and markets have global dimensions. Going abroad to further your studies will widen your perspective, so we fully support that.

The Lincoln University Student Exchange Programme allows you to get that broad experience in a different environment. The programme lets you:

- Study at any one of our partner institutions in Canada, Europe, USA or South America
- Continue to pay only your Lincoln University fees (scholarships and Studylink are still available)
- Credit your overseas courses back to your Lincoln degree – there's no need to extend the length of your studies
- Study overseas for one semester or an academic year

- Meet people from a different culture and make new friends
- See another part of the world without pausing your studies
- Study subjects in addition to those available at Lincoln and broaden your knowledge of a particular discipline

How to apply

This is a once-in-a lifetime experience, a chance for you to grow and learn in a new and exciting setting. The first thing you should do is call in to Student Administration and see the Study Abroad and Exchange Administrator to discuss the available options.

When to go

Students generally go overseas in their second year of a three-year programme and should usually apply at least one semester in advance. However, applications are still considered if you want to apply for an exchange in your third year.

What grades do I need?

You will normally need a B-average. You also should be fit and healthy and a good ambassador for Lincoln University.

Sign-up dates

Complete the application form on the website by the following deadlines:

- 1 August for Exchange in Semester One
- 1 December for Exchange in Semester Two

Find out more and apply at www.lincoln.ac.nz/studentexchange

Lili Paradi

Lili Paradi, from the University of Guelph in Canada, says spending a semester at Lincoln University in 2019 was a "life-changing experience".

"Lincoln has such a small-town feel – you get to know everyone really well. It's like your big university family! I barely missed home, as I created a home at Lincoln.

"The off-campus life is amazing as well," she says. "Lincoln is a 30-minute drive from Christchurch, an awesome city filled with culture, art and history. Living there is easy, fun and relaxing. I love Lincoln!"

Study Abroad

Study Abroad enables overseas students to attend Lincoln for a semester.

Come and spend a semester at Lincoln University and experience the best that Aotearoa New Zealand has to offer.

What can you study?

A lot depends on your academic background, but you can choose from any of the courses in our faculties.

The rules for meeting prerequisite requirements do not apply to Study Abroad students, so please check out the full list of options.

Can I get a student visa?

As a Study Abroad student, you will need to obtain a student visa prior to departure from your home country. See the Immigration New Zealand website for more information.

How to apply

You can apply for our Study Abroad programme via direct enrolment through your current university, a certified provider, or on our website.

Find out more www.lincoln.ac.nz/studyabroad

Contacts

Lincoln University Te Waihora Campus

Ellesmere Junction Road/Springs Road
PO Box 85084, Lincoln University
Lincoln 7647
Canterbury, New Zealand

E: grow@lincoln.ac.nz
P: 0800 10 60 10 (NZ)
P: +64 3 423 0000 (International)

Student Liaison officers

Our student liaison team will be the first point of contact for you as a future student. They can give you all the information you need and answer any questions you may have about course planning, applying, or life at Lincoln, or they can refer you to an expert. The student liaison team also visits secondary schools and attends career expos in all regions.

E: grow@lincoln.ac.nz
P: 0800 10 60 10
P: +64 3 423 0000
www.lincoln.ac.nz/liaison

Te Manutaki Office of Māori & Pasifika Development

The Māori and Pasifika team are here to support you on your educational journey, including study, scholarships, wellbeing and cultural support.

P: +64 3 423 0000
E: ompd@lincoln.ac.nz
www.lincoln.ac.nz

Campus tours

We offer guided campus tours throughout the year. Tours take about 60-90 minutes, and will cover the key parts of our campus. To book your tour, head online to <https://www.lincoln.ac.nz/study/domestic-liaison/campus-tours/>

You can also take a virtual campus tour at lincoln.youtour.nz

International Office

The International Office promotes and markets Lincoln University to prospective international students and works with its global network of education agents to provide high quality customer service.

We also support students with programme and course advice and help students through the University's applications and enrolment processes.

E: international@lincoln.ac.nz
P: 0800 10 60 10
P: +64 3 423 0000
www.lincoln.ac.nz/international-office

Key dates

At Lincoln, we have some key dates that are handy to be aware of to make the most of your experience.

Make sure you go to www.lincoln.ac.nz/key-dates for more info and the exact dates.

View the Lincoln University campus map at www.lincoln.ac.nz/map

Disclaimer Every effort is made to ensure that information in this publication is correct at the time of printing, but the content may be subject to change. Lincoln University reserves the right to make changes, amendments or deletions – including the withdrawal of courses – should circumstances change. Lincoln University does not assume, and hereby disclaims, any express or implied liability whatsoever to any party for any loss or damage caused by errors or omissions, whether these errors or omissions result from negligence, accident or any other cause. February 2024.

Follow us and keep up to date

LINCOLN
UNIVERSITY

TE WHARE WĀNAKA O AORAKI

Find out more at www.lincoln.ac.nz