Colliers Rural and Agribusiness Valuation Scholarship

Company Background

Colliers Rural Valuation is the leading rural valuation practice in New Zealand. Currently employing ten registered rural valuers nationwide and five graduate rural valuers working and gaining experience towards their registration. With over 200 years of combined rural valuation experience amongst our team, graduates have extensive scope to learn and develop skills in all facets of rural valuation.

Our clients span the entire nation including corporate, multi-property, crown, and individual property owners. Colliers Rural Valuation is known for our ability to value complex land valuations, compensation valuations, and senior valuers have given expert evidence in litigation cases. We have rural valuation offices based in Tauranga, Nelson, Blenheim, and Christchurch and offer flexibility to our employees in terms of working location to develop sector knowledge and accommodate long term goals.

Operating in 65 countries, Colliers globally employs 18,000 enterprising people working collaboratively to provide expert advice and services to accelerate the success of real estate occupiers, owners, developers, and investors.

As a privately owned company (aligned with a multinational), Colliers Rural Valuation offers the opportunity to advance graduates careers and in the long term become a shareholder or Director of the company.

Regulations

1. Purpose

The Crighton Anderson Valuation Scholarship was established in 2013 to reward excellence and encourage students who wish to make a career in valuation and who undertake studies at Lincoln University. The scholarship was rebranded as Colliers Rural and Agribusiness Valuation Scholarship in 2015, it acknowledges the close relationship between Colliers Rural Valuation and Lincoln University, with almost all of the team having commenced their valuation careers following study at Lincoln University.

2. Value

One scholarship to be offered annually to a full-time student studying in:

- Bachelor of Land and Property Management degree (BLPM), or
- Graduate Diploma in Valuation at Lincoln University.

The value of the scholarship is tuition fees up to the value of $3,000 to a student in their third or fourth year of studies in 2023.

In addition, and provided suitable opportunities are available, Colliers may also offer the awardee paid internship or holiday work during the tenure of the award in our Rural & Agribusiness Valuation team.

3. Eligibility

Applicants must be full time students who are:

- (a) Currently in their third or fourth year of study towards a degree specialising in Valuation. The scholarship is awarded mid year.
- (b) Studying rural valuation and plan to pursue a career in rural valuation.
- (c) New Zealand Citizens or Permanent Residents.

4. Selection Criteria

The criteria for selection will be:

- (a) Academic merit
- (b) Interest in pursuing a career in rural valuation
- (c) Communication and interpersonal skills
- (d) Potential to succeed

5. Selection Committee

The scholarship shall be awarded based on a recommendation of a selection committee from representatives of Crighton Anderson Property and Infrastructure Ltd trading as Colliers Rural Valuation, or nominees.

The selection committee may request the applicant to attend an interview as part of the selection process.

The selection committee may refrain from making an award if it finds no candidate of sufficient merit.

The selection committee decision is final.

6. Tenure

- (a) The scholarship is tenable for one year.
- (b) The scholarship is tenable with any other scholarship, award or bursary provided prior approval from Colliers Rural Valuation has been granted.
- (c) An internship with Colliers may also be available to the selected candidate.

7. Application

Applications close on Tuesday, 22 August 2023 with all supporting documents to be received.
