

HINE RANGI TRUST (Northland) SCHOLARSHIP

REGULATIONS

1. Purpose

The Hine Rangi Trust scholarship was established in 2014 to support study and research that will benefit Northland farmers and growers and the wider New Zealand agricultural and horticultural industry.

2. Number/Value

One Scholarship to the value of $5000 may be available annually.

3. Eligibility

- (1) The scholarship shall be open to students who are normally resident in Northland, or who have parents who are Northland residents.
- (2) Applicants should be in their final year of a degree where they are undertaking an element of research that could be of benefit to Northland farmers and growers.

4. Selection Criteria

The criteria for selection shall be:

- (1) Academic merit.
- (2) The relevance of the proposed research to Northland farmers and growers.

5. Selection Committee

The selection committee shall consist of:

- (1) Convenor of the Lincoln University Scholarships Committee or nominee.
- (2) A representative from the Lincoln University Faculty of Commerce or Agriculture and Life Sciences.
- (3) A representative from the Hine Rangi Trust.

The Selection Panel may refrain from making an award if, in their opinion, there is no applicant of sufficient merit.

6. Tenure

The tenure of the scholarship shall be for a maximum of one calendar year and shall begin at the commencement of the Semester immediately following the award. Previous recipients are not eligible to reapply for the scholarship in subsequent years.

7. Programme of Research

During the tenure of the scholarship, a scholar shall be enrolled for the relevant degree at Lincoln University.

8. Payments

Payment of the scholarship shall be made to the successful applicant's tuition fees account upon registration in their chosen degree.

9. Co-Tenure

The scholarship shall be tenable with any other scholarship, bursary or award unless the conditions of the other award preclude it.

Note: In the case where the total value of the scholarship and the other awards exceed $35,000, then the value of the emolument component will be reduced by $1 for every dollar by which the value of the awards exceeds $35,000.

10. Positions of Emolument

A scholar may hold a position of emolument while receiving a scholarship provided that he or she meets the University's requirements for registration as a student for the relevant degree.

11. Applications

Candidates shall submit applications no later than 31 March. Applications will be submitted on the form provided by the Scholarships Office.

These regulations shall take effect from 1 April 2014.

ADVICE TO APPLICANTS

Applications must arrive by the date shown on the application form. No undertaking is given to accept late applications.

It is your responsibility to contact your referees, and ask them to send their references to the Scholarships Office. References should be clearly marked with your name and the name of the scholarship(s) for which you are applying. Referees should not be asked to send their references to you, as they must have the opportunity to be completely frank. Non receipt of referees reports or incomplete applications, may prejudice your eligibility.

If requested please do not send original birth certificates or other original documents. Send only copies that have been certified by a J.P, a solicitor, or a staff member in Student Administration. Lincoln University accepts no responsibility to return original documents.

Please do not put your application into any sort of folder. Simply attach all pages with ONE staple in the top left hand corner. All pages should be A4 size.

If you have any queries regarding your eligibility or how to apply, please contact the Scholarships Office on 0800 10 60 10 or scholarships@lincoln.ac.nz.
