

John Reeves Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship has been presented by the Reeves family who manage a leading Romney stud. A number of family members have attended Lincoln University over the years.

Regulations

1. Purpose

The John Reeves Memorial Scholarship was established in 2021 to support a student who is entering their final year of study towards a Bachelor Agricultural Science with Honours degree at Lincoln University. The successful applicant must be undertaking an honours dissertation project in sheep, such as sheep breeding, genetics, methane output by sheep or internal parasite work.

2. Number/Value

One scholarship will be offered annually to a full time student studying at Lincoln University. The annual value of the scholarship shall be $ 2,000 towards tuition fees or living expenses. The scholarship will be paid in two equal instalments, May and August, after confirmation of satisfactory progress from the Lincoln University dissertation supervisor.

3. Eligibility

- a. Applicants must be full time students registered in their Bachelor of Agricultural Science degree with Honours.
- b. Applicants must be New Zealand Citizens or Permanent Residents.

4. Selection Criteria

The criteria for selection will be:

- a. Undertaking an honours dissertation project either in sheep breeding/genetics or sheep parasitology
- b. Evidence of and/or planned activity to support the New Zealand sheep industry.

5. Selection Committee

The scholarship shall be awarded based on a recommendation from:

- a. A representative from the Reeves family, and
- b. The Convenor of the Lincoln University Scholarships Committee or nominee
- c. A representative from the Faculty of Agriculture and Life Sciences.

The Reeves family may refrain from making an award if it finds no candidate of sufficient merit.

6. Tenure

- a. The scholarship is tenable for one year.
- b. The scholarship is tenable with any other scholarship, award or bursary.
