

LINCOLN UNIVERSITY
MAI MAI FISH AND GAME/WATERWAYS
LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE SCHOLARSHIP 2022 REGULATIONS

1. Purpose

The Lincoln University Mai Mai Fish and Game/Waterways Landscape Architecture Scholarship is awarded for the purpose of supporting postgraduate study and research at Lincoln University.

2. Number

One scholarship is being awarded for 2023.

3. Eligibility

- (1) The Scholarship is open to applicants who have gained entrance into the research year of their Master of Landscape Architecture degree at Lincoln University.
- (2) If a candidate awarded a scholarship under 3(1) above does not become eligible to register for a Masters at Lincoln University within three months of the award, then the award will lapse.

4. Selection Criteria

The scholarship will be awarded based on the following criteria:

1. Academic merit
2. Demonstrated skills in academic writing
3. Good communication skills
4. Interest in designing for human activity/natural area interactions
5. Desirable skills: experience in social surveying; design skills

6. Selection Committee

The scholarship shall be awarded by the School of Landscape Architecture on the recommendation of a Selection Committee which shall comprise:

- (1) Wendy McWilliam, Senior Lecturer, Faculty Environment, Society and Design, or nominee
- (2) One other representative from the School of Landscape Architecture
- (3) A representative from the Waterways Centre for Freshwater Management.

7. Tenure

The following conditions of tenure shall apply:

- (1) The scholarship shall be tenable for a maximum of one year from the commencement date of the tenure of the scholarship.
- (2) The tenure of the scholarship shall begin at the start date of the thesis study immediately following the award.

8. Programme of Research

During the tenure of the scholarship, the scholar shall be enrolled as a full-time student for the degree of Master of Landscape Architecture.

9. Deferral of Study

No deferment is available for this scholarship.

10. Payments

- (1) The value of the scholarship is $7,800 (one year of domestic tuition fees) for a Research Master's programme of study in 2023. The amount will be credited to the scholar's tuition fee account on their registration in 2023.
- (2) An additional amount of $2,000 is available from the School of Landscape Architecture to cover research expenses.

11. Co-Tenure

This scholarship shall be tenable with any other scholarship, bursary or award unless the conditions of the other award preclude it (i.e. another fees scholarship).

12. Positions of Emolument

- (1) A scholar is expected to devote his or her whole time to study for the degree of Master of Landscape Architecture.
- (2) A scholar may hold a position of emolument while receiving a scholarship provided that he or she meets the University's requirements for registration as a full-time student for the degree of Master of Landscape Architecture.

Note: In order to meet the university's requirements for registration as a full-time Masters student, a scholar may work no more than ten hours per week during the academic year.

13. Reviews of Progress

- (1) The Faculty will supply a 6 month report on the scholar's progress to the Mai Mai Committee (funders).
- (2) A scholar is expected to have prepared, and have approved, a research proposal within three months of commencement of the scholarship.

(3) If the Vice-Chancellor, at any time, is satisfied that the scholar is not diligently pursuing his or her studies; or is not complying with the conditions of the scholarship; or is not making satisfactory progress, then the Vice-Chancellor may suspend or terminate any scholarship or require the forfeiture of any proportion of the scholarship emolument.

14. Concessions

The Vice-Chancellor may relax or modify the application of any of these regulations in special circumstances or to avoid hardship to an incoming scholar who has been awarded this scholarship.

15. Dates

Applications to be sent to wendy.mcwilliams@lincoln.ac.nz

These regulations shall take effect from 1 January 2022.