

Maniototo Lions Agricultural Scholarship Lincoln University for 2024

Maniototo Lions offer an annual scholarship up to $2000 for aspiring young agricultural students to assist with their studies to help them gain entry into the sheep and beef industry or a similar field in the agricultural sector.

The scholarship is open to students enrolled in:

- Diploma in Agriculture
- Diploma in Farm Management
- Batchelor of Agriculture
- Batchelor of Agricultural Science
- Batchelor of Commerce (Agriculture)
- Batchelor of Commerce (Agriculture and professional accounting)
- Batchelor of Agribusiness and Food Marketing

Selection Criteria/Eligibility

- Applicants must be enrolled in one of the above courses.
- The successful applicant will demonstrate some academic merit, a real commitment to their current studies and be strongly motivated and passionate about working in the sheep and beef industry or a similar field in the agriculture sector in the future.
- Must be a New Zealand citizen and from within the 'wider' Maniototo area. (This area is approximately defined as a 50 Kilometre circle around Ranfurly and would include the Hyde, Oturehua and Pigroot areas).

Application/Interview Process

- Application forms will be available at ICL Chartered Accountant's office in Ranfurly who will also have them available by email at lynette@iclca.co.nz.
- Applications need to be submitted by Friday 17/11/2023

- The selection committee will consist of representatives from the Maniototo Lions winter crop committee, the current club president and a representative from Lincoln University.
- An applicant may be requested to attend an interview with the above committee.
- Successful scholarship recipient (s) will be announced in early December.
- All applicants will be acknowledged.

Scholarship Conditions

- Recipient(s) will receive a payment from the Maniototo Lions Club over two semesters which will be paid to Lincoln University to be applied to either their tuition fees or accommodation account.
- The scholarship is tenable for one year.
- The scholarship is tenable with any other scholarship provided they are disclosed to the selection panel before any interview takes place.
- The scholarship may be awarded to more than one applicant.

Application Details

- Applications should be sent to;
Maniototo Lions Agricultural Scholarship
c/- ICL Chartered Accountants
Charlemont St,
Ranfurly
Or email to lynette@iclca.co.nz

Promotion of Scholarship

- The Scholarship will be promoted in the Maniototo Bulletin and also on the Lincoln University scholarship database on the LU website.
- The scholarship and the successful recipient(s) will be named in the Lincoln University Graduation booklet.