

The Pavilions Hotel

Hotel Management Scholarship

The Pavilions Hotel supports those seeking a career in the hotel industry and studying a Bachelor of Commerce – Hotel and Tourism Management at Lincoln University via the Pavilion Hotel Scholarship.

The Pavilions Hotel is a family-owned, Qualmark 4 Gold-rated hotel in Christchurch, New Zealand. Offering over ninety beautifully designed and well-appointed guest rooms, suites, apartments, and associated food and beverage, including conference and event facilities. The Pavilions Hotel Scholar will receive a scholarship valued at $3,000.00 and experience working in all areas of operations working alongside experienced professional operational and managerial team members.

The Pavilions Hotel

The Pavillions Hotel Scholarship Conditions

1. The Scholar.

The successful applicant to the Pavillions Hotel Scholarship will be known as the Pavillions Hotel Scholar and enrolled as a full-time student in the Bachelor of Commerce – Hotel and Tourism Management at Lincoln University.

2. Scholarship Award Value.

The value of the Pavillions Hotel Scholarship is $3,000.00, payable in two instalments (at the end of each semester), conditional upon the Scholar achieving a B- average grade across all four courses studied that semester.

3. Scholarship Employment.

The Scholarship is conditional on the applicant being able to secure part-time (agreed minimum hours per week) at the Pavillions Hotel during the year of the Scholarship. Full-time employment work may be available during semester breaks.

Employment is a private and standard employment arrangement between the successful applicant and Pavillions Hotel and is not connected to the student's enrolment at Lincoln University.

The Scholarship is only available while the Scholar is employed (as above) at the Pavillions Hotel.

4. Scholarship Duration.

The scholarship duration is one year, commencing on registration at the beginning of the year into Lincoln University's the Bachelor of Commerce – Hotel and Tourism Management Major and ends on 31 December. Successful Scholars, are eligible to apply for following year scholarships.

5. Promotional Activities.

The Pavillions Hotel Scholar may be involved in promotional activities related to the Scholarship with the Pavillions Hotel.

Applications Close:

Applications should be emailed to:

Debbie Horncastle

The General Manager

Pavilion Hotel (Christchurch)

debbie@pavilion.co.nz

Along with an application letter, please submit the following:

1. One A4 page setting out the reasons why you should be selected as the Scholar, including the qualities and benefits you bring to the role and hotel and where you see yourself in five years.
2. How will your studies contribute to your immediate and long-term career plans? (Please include your vision of your immediate and long-term career plans)
3. A complete CV including current and previous work history and any present employment.
4. Your latest secondary school/tertiary academic record.

For additional information, contact:

Associate Professor Anthony Brien – Programme Director, Lincoln University.

Anthony.Brien@lincoln.ac.nz or phone 03 423 0240.

PAVILIONS

HOTEL CHRISTCHURCH