

Faculty of Environment, Society and Design
Summer Research Scholarship
Lincoln University 2022-2023

PROJECT DETAILS

Supervisor(s): Shannon Davis Phone and e-mail: Shannon.davis@lincoln.ac.nz; 021 121 1298
Funder: AgResearch (original funding source NSC) Contact person: Lisa Shorey (RMO), Julie Ward (ESD)
Project title: NSC: Re-spatialising the rural-urban interface of Aotearoa: Understanding the potential of the peri-urban to re-connect New Zealanders with whenua and food
Project Description: To research literature and oral histories associated with Māori Land Development, and specifically the '20 acre block' self-sustaining property unit, farmed by the people of Te Whakatōhea, near Ōpōtiki.
Project Outcomes: A report on the history, function and spatial layout of the '20 acre block' farmed by Te Whakatōhea.
Tasks to be performed by student: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Literature Review• Oral interviews (on-site) with Mana Whenua• Visual representation of the '20 acre block'• Report
Prerequisite skills (if applicable): <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Be a final year student within the Bachelor of Landscape Architecture programme• Be willing to travel to Ōpōtiki as required Note: Priority will be given to students of Te Whakatōhea decent.
Please indicate if Ethics Approval is necessary: Yes, interviews with Mana Whenua will be necessary and therefore HE approval will be required.
Dates: Completion of the project will be part time over 10 weeks between: 14 November – 18 December 2022 (5 weeks), and 9 January – 12 February 2023 (5 weeks)
Value of the scholarship: $4500