

Tuatara Structures Undergraduate Scholarship In Land and Property Management Regulations

Background

Tuatara Structures are leaders in the design and construction of structural steel buildings. Founded in 2014, they are known for delivering robust, fit-for-purpose buildings New Zealand wide. Specialising in large-scale industrial, commercial and agri-space solutions, their team has the experience, capability and mettle to deliver outstanding results, every time.

Tuatara Structures work alongside their clients to create structures that will deliver a strong return on investment and become a lasting asset for their clients' businesses. Tuatara Structures pride themselves on being 'outperformers' in the industry – delivering better service, faster turn-arounds and higher quality results.

This scholarship, established in Tuatara Structures' tenth year, celebrates shared aspirations between both Lincoln University and Tuatara Structures; including leadership, sustainability, a well-supported industry and a well-equipped future generation.

1. Purpose

Tuatara Structures has established this scholarship in 2023 to encourage and reward excellence for students wishing to make a career in the property industry.

2. Number/Value

One scholarship will be offered annually to a full-time student in their second year of study at Lincoln University with a value of $5,000 towards tuition fees. In addition, and provided suitable positions are available, Tuatara Structures may also offer the awardee paid internship and mentoring during the tenure of the award. This will be through a separate process and employment agreement.

3. Eligibility

- (a) Applicants who have successfully passed their first 12 months of study towards the Bachelor of Land and Property Management degree are eligible to apply.
- (b) Applicants must be New Zealand Citizens or Permanent Residents.
- (c) Applicants must be able to demonstrate a preference for a career in the property valuation sector.

4. Selection Criteria

The criteria for selection will be

- (a) Academic Merit
- (b) Communication and Interpersonal Skills
- (c) Potential to succeed

Candidates may be asked to attend an interview as part of the selection process.

5. Selection Committee

The scholarship shall be awarded based on the recommendation of a selection committee which may comprise:

- The Convenor of the Scholarships Committee, or nominee
- An academic with experience in the property sector
- A representative from Tuatara Structures.

The selection committee may refrain from making an award if it finds no candidate of sufficient merit.

6. Tenure

- (a) The scholarship is tenable for one year.
- (b) The scholarship is tenable with any other scholarship, bursary or award unless the conditions of the other award preclude it.
- (c) An internship and mentoring with staff from Tuatara Structures in Christchurch may also be made available to the selected candidate.

7. Application

Application forms are available from the Lincoln University scholarships website:

www.lincoln.ac.nz/scholarships

Applications close 31 March with the Scholarships Office at Lincoln University.
