

Information about verified documents

What is verified documentation?

A verified copy of a document is a photocopy which has been certified by one of the people shown here who has sighted the original.

Who can verify my documents?

Only the following can verify documents:

- Justice of the Peace
- Solicitor
- Court Official (such as Registrar or Deputy Registrar)
- Lincoln University Registry Staff

How do they verify my documents?

The official who signs your document(s) must print their full name, title and use their official stamp on each page verified.

